UNITED WORLD WRESTLING ASIA

Introduction

As an auxiliary body of United World Wrestling, UWW Asia actively promotes and develops wrestling in Asia by creating a structured, sequential and progressive development structures for athletes, coaches, national federations officials, and referees for affiliated United World Wrestling members in Asia. In addition, Asian Council oversees and evaluates current situation of wrestling development, participation and performance at continental and world levels to provide recommendations for United World Wrestling Development and Sports departments. The main aims of United World Wrestling Asia are: to increase number of participants; to enhance technical level of athletes, coaches and referees; to maximize national federations effectiveness and organizational capacity.

On April 21-22, 2019, Executive Committee meeting and the General Assembly of UWW-Asia were held in Xian, China. Twenty-seven (27) Asian national wrestling federations attended this event. Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Kuwait, Lebanon, Myanmar, Palestine, Pakistan, Philippines, Syria, United Arab Emirates and Yemen were not present. UWW President Nenad Lalovic, Vice President Achroljan Ruziev, and UWW office staff attended the conference: Ms. Lei Liang (Development), Yuri Maier (Development).

Working strategy and main objectives of UWW Asia were discussed and approved by Executive members and anonymously approved by Asian National Wrestling Federations.

One of the main tasks of UWW Asia is to ensure high level participation of Asian wrestlers at all major international competitions, organization of high-level continental championships and international tournaments in strict accordance with United Wrestling World rules.

Currently, United World Wrestling organizes a large number of international competitions and offers a wide range of programs for national federations, which should be utilized by members of UWW Asia to achieve better results and increase efficiency.

Secondly, UWW Asia put a lot of efforts to implement in full United World Wrestling development programs on Asian continent: training programs, development projects and technical assistance programs.

United World Wrestling Asia encourages all national wrestling federations to use opportunities provided by United World Wrestling and UWW Asia by applying for different programs, such as: technical courses for coaches (Level 1; Level 2); courses for referees (non-certification); grassroots development projects; development of national sports system (Olympic Solidarity); anti-doping educational activities; technical assistance programs (continental events support & mats); training opportunities; and national federations workshop.
