

ANOC WORLD BEACH GAMES 2023 – BEACH WRESTLING INVITATION PLACES

UNITED WORLD WRESTLING – BEACH WRESTLING

INVITATION PLACES ALLOCATION PROCEDURE AND REGULATIONS

The Qualification System sets the rules established by the Association of National Olympic Committees (ANOC), in consultation with United World Wrestling (UWW), which consist of rules, procedures and criteria for participation in the competitions of the ANOC WORLD BEACH GAMES 2023, hereafter the “AWBG”. They are established to give a fair and equal opportunity for the best athletes in the world to participate in the AWBG, as well as to ensure universal representation.

The principle of universality is a fundamental aspect of the AWBG. United World Wrestling and ANOC seek to provide additional universality opportunities with the allocation of Invitation Places by the AWBG Invitation Commission, hereafter the “Invitation Commission”.

The Invitation Commission is composed of representatives from the ANOC and representatives from United World Wrestling. The objective of the Invitation Commission is to manage the allocation procedure for invitation places and contribute to enhancing universality, by selecting athletes from NOCs who have not been able to qualify. The allocation of invitation places is at the absolute discretion of the Invitation Commission. All decisions taken by the Invitation Commission in relation to these regulations or to the allocation of invitation places are final.

ATHLETE ELIGIBILITY

The athletes proposed by their respective NOCs must:

- be born on/or before 31 December 2005
- hold a valid license issued by their National Federation
- have participated in at least one (1) of the following Beach Wrestling World Series events in the respective weight category:

2022

Saint-Laurent-du-Var Beach Wrestling World Series – FRA: 1-2 July 2022

Katerini Beach Wrestling World Series – GRE: 9-10 July 2022

Constanta Beach Wrestling World Series – ROU: 3-4 September 2022

2023

1st Beach Wrestling World Series – Buenos Aires (ARG): 7-8 May 2023

2nd Beach Wrestling World Series – Singapore (SGP): 10-11 June 2023

These requirements are defined in the AWBG-Beach Wrestling Qualification System. The sporting technical level of each athlete will be assessed by the Invitation Commission.

ALLOCATION CRITERIA

IF priority: based on the assessment of the athletes, technical level and sporting achievement during the qualification period

ANOC priority: based on various principles in relation to the objectives of the AWBG, including:

- Universality (by allowing more NOCs to participate in Beach Wrestling and the AWBG)
- Continental balance
- NOC and athlete eligibility
- Technical level to compete safely and with dignity (based on the IF assessment)

ANOC WORLD BEACH GAMES 2023 – BEACH WRESTLING INVITATION PLACES

The above-mentioned criteria are taken into consideration by the Invitation Commission altogether, without any pre-established order of priority or preference. As the number of applications is generally higher than the number of Invitation Places available, not all eligible NOCs may be awarded an Invitation place. As is stated above, the allocation of invitation places is at the absolute discretion of the Invitation Commission.

From the moment the application process is launched by ANOC and United World Wrestling, applications should be sent to the Invitation Commission, to be received no later than 1 March 2023.

APPLICATION AND ALLOCATION PROCESS

As per the BEACH WRESTLING QUALIFICATION SYSTEM – ANOC WORLD BEACH GAMES 2023, eight (8) quota places – one (1) per event and gender will be made available as invitation places to eligible NOCs to participate at the ANOC World Beach Games (AWBG) 2023 who have not previously qualified as outlined in the Qualification System and provided the respective athletes comply with the eligibility criteria outlined in the aforementioned Qualification System. The Invitation Places will be only allocated to eligible NOCs (as set out in the Beach Wrestling Qualification).

Interested and eligible NOCs shall reply by communicating to United World Wrestling (at jeandaniel.rey@uww.org) and ANOC (at awbg@anocolympic.org) their interest by 1 March 2023 using the “Beach Wrestling - 2023 ANOC WBG Invitation Places - NOC Expression of Interest form” below. The Invitation Commission will confirm, in writing, the allocation of invitation places to the selected NOCs by 19 June 2023. The deadline for NOCs to accept the invitation is 3 July 2023.
